

Linguapeace Language Audit

Please complete all the relevant data below:

Name

Rank

Nationality

Mother tongue

Put a cross beside each of the activities that you are involved in. Then go to the section indicated by the side of each activities and complete the questions.

Managing multinational peaceforces	1	<input type="checkbox"/>
Observing movements, recce patrols	2	<input type="checkbox"/>
Research (intelligence) confiscation and detention	3	<input type="checkbox"/>
Manning checkpoints and border crossings	4	<input type="checkbox"/>
Escorting civilians and refugees	5	<input type="checkbox"/>
Investigating incidents: mines; sniper attacks; accidents	6	<input type="checkbox"/>
Verifying ceasefires and investigating violations	7	<input type="checkbox"/>
Taking witness statements	8	<input type="checkbox"/>
Providing humanitarian assistance to agencies	9	<input type="checkbox"/>
Monitoring elections	10	<input type="checkbox"/>
Helping civil administration	11	<input type="checkbox"/>
Fostering human rights	12	<input type="checkbox"/>
Liaison with local police force	13	<input type="checkbox"/>

Telecommunications	14
Negotiations	15
Logistics and supplies	16
Quarter making	17
Technical service	18
Equipment of troops	19
Environmental damage	20
Safety, health, hygiene	21
Emergency situations	22
First aid	23
Weather forecast	24
Reporting	25

Managing Multinational Peaceforces

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Headquarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Briefings, meetings, appointments
Co-ordination of actions
Joint operations (area, position of troops etc)
Command structure (responsibilities, reporting etc.)
Giving/following orders
Interpretation of Intelligence data
Handling Interpreters

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Briefings, meetings, appointments
Co-ordination of actions
Joint operations (area, position of troops etc)
Command structure (responsibilities, reporting etc.)
Giving/following orders
Interpretation of Intelligence data
Handling Interpreters

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Briefings, meetings, appointments
Co-ordination of actions
Joint operations (area, position of troops etc)
Command structure (responsibilities, reporting etc.)
Giving/following orders
Interpretation of Intelligence data
Handling Interpreters

Observing movements, recce patrols

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Patrols (border, de-militarisation area etc.)
Recce patrol, airplane
Topographic expressions
Interpretation of intelligence data
Identifying and interpreting movements
Planning routes, interpreting maps
Signposts, traffic signalisation

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Patrols (border, de-militarisation area etc.)
Recce patrol, airplane
Topographic expressions
Interpretation of intelligence data
Identifying and interpreting movements
Planning routes, interpreting maps
Signposts, traffic signalisation

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Patrols (border, de-militarisation area etc.)
Recce patrol, airplane
Topographic expressions
Interpretation of intelligence data
Identifying and interpreting movements
Planning routes, interpreting maps
Signposts, traffic signalisation

Research (intelligence) detention and confiscation

In the activities listed tick who you communicate

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Confiscation
Taking witness statements
Observing Individuals and Objects
Organise detention and confiscation actions

Which skills do you use in each of these

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do You write?	Speaking	Listening
Confiscation
Taking witness statements
Observing Individuals and Objects
Organise detention and confiscation actions

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Confiscation
Taking witness statements
Observing Individuals and Objects
Organise detention and confiscation actions

Manning checkpoints and border crossings

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Stopping vehicles, people
Checking papers (passport/drivers licence/green ass.card/cargo letter etc.)
Checking vehicles/luggage/cargo on weapons/electronics/drugs etc.
Search/frisk people
Giving orders/instructions (Open this, leave, drop... etc.)
Receiving orders/instructions
Information (destination, content luggage etc.)

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Stopping vehicles, people
Checking papers (passport/drivers licence/green ass.card/cargo letter etc.)
Checking vehicles/luggage/cargo on weapons/electronics/drugs etc.
Search/frisk people
Giving orders/instructions (Open this, leave, drop... etc.)
Receiving orders/instructions
Information (destination, content luggage etc.)

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Stopping vehicles, people
Checking papers (passport/drivers licence/green ass.card/cargo letter etc.)
Checking vehicles/luggage/cargo on weapons/electronics/drugs etc.
Search/frisk people
Giving orders/instructions (Open this, leave, drop... etc.)
Receiving orders/instructions
Information (destination, content luggage etc.)

Escorting civilians / refugees

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Introduction
Planning escort
Security on the road
Explaining mission
Gathering information (Do you have food, Where do you come from ..., etc.)
Supply of food and shelter

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Introduction
Planning escort
Security on the road
Explaining mission
Gathering information (Do you have food, Where do you come from ..., etc.)
Supply of food and shelter

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Introduction
Planning escort
Security on the road
Explaining mission
Gathering information (Do you have food, Where do you come from ..., etc.)
Supply of food and shelter

Investigating incidents: mines, sniper attacks, accidents

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Taking witness statements (see 8)
Investigation on the spot
Collection of evidence

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Taking witness statements (see 8)
Investigation on the spot
Collection of evidence

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Taking witness statements (see 8)
Investigation on the spot
Collection of evidence

Verifying ceasefires and investigating violations

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Radar controls, interpretation of satellite data
Intelligence: see Observing movements and Taking witness statements
Disarming warring factions

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Radar controls, interpretation of satellite data
Intelligence: see Observing movements and Taking witness statements
Disarming warring factions

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Radar controls, interpretation of satellite data
Intelligence: see Observing movements and Taking witness statements
Disarming warring factions

Taking witness statements

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Explaining obligations and rights of the witness
Description of incident
Description of person(s)
Take statements, do the interrogation
Signing of documents by witness
Make followup appointment

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Explaining obligations and rights of the witness
Description of incident
Description of person(s)
Take statements, do the interrogation
Signing of documents by witness
Make follow-up appointment

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Explaining obligations and rights of the witness
Description of incident
Description of person(s)
Take statements, do the interrogation
Signing of documents by witness
Make followup appointment

Providing humanitarian assistance to agencies

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Repatriating refugees
Providing transport and storage of food
Providing accommodation (tents, water supply, hygiene etc.)
Providing health care (hospitals, medicines, medical supplies ... etc.)
Search operations (see Recce patrols)

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Repatriating refugees
Providing transport and storage of food
Providing accommodation (tents, water supply, hygiene etc.)
Providing health care (hospitals, medicines, medical supplies ... etc.)
Search operations (see Recce patrols)

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Repatriating refugees
Providing transport and storage of food
Providing accommodation (tents, water supply, hygiene etc.)
Providing health care (hospitals, medicines, medical supplies ... etc.)
Search operations (see Recce patrols)

Monitoring elections

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Assist in organizing elections
Monitoring elections
Storing and guarding vote boxes
Taking care of non disturbance
Handling incidents

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Assist in organizing elections
Monitoring elections
Storing and guarding vote boxes
Taking care of non disturbance
Handling incidents

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Assist in organizing elections
Monitoring elections
Storing and guarding vote boxes
Taking care of non disturbance
Handling incidents

Helping civil administration

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Public works (Repair of schools, restoring radio and telephone ... etc.)
Construction (Reconstruction of offices, ... etc.)
Transportation (Repair of roads and bridges, etc.)
Railway operations
Traffic operations, removing obstacles
Fire services, assisting fire brigades
Protection of international workers
Food distribution
Medical services

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you hwrite?	Speaking	Listening
Public works (Repair of schools, restoring radio and telephone etc.)
Construction (Reconstruction of offices, ... etc.)
Transportation (Repair of roads and bridges, etc.)
Railway operations
Traffic operations, removing obstacles
Fire services, assisting fire brigades
Protection of international workers
Food distribution
Medical services

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Public works (Repair of schools, restoring radio and telephone etc.)
Construction (Reconstruction of offices, etc.)
Transportation (Repair of roads and bridges, etc.)
Railway operations
Traffic operations, removing obstacles
Fire services, assisting fire brigades
Protection of international workers
Food distribution
Medical services

Fostering human rights

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Civil rights and laws of the country
Visit prisons, prisoner camps
Communicate with government, opposition groups, local police and army forces
Intelligence (newspapers, interviewing, reports, other ...)
Communication with embassy personnel

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Civil rights and laws of the country
Visit prisons, prisoner camps
Communicate with government, opposition groups, local police and army forces
Intelligence (newspapers, interviewing, reports, other ...)
Communication with embassy personnel

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Civil rights and laws of the country
Visit prisons, prisoner camps
Communicate with government, opposition groups, local police and army forces
Intelligence (newspapers, interviewing, reports, other ...)
Communication with embassy personnel

Liaison with local police force

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Training and monitoring of local police forces
Public safety and order, law enforcement
Presence patrol
Response to emergency calls
Info gathering
Investigation of criminal activities
Arrest or detention of suspected criminals
Combat of terrorism
Civil disturbance operations, defence of patrimonial sites, etc.

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do You read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Training and monitoring of local police forces
Public safety and order, law enforcement
Presence patrol
Response to emergency calls
Info gathering
Investigation of criminal activities
Arrest or detention of suspected criminals
Combat of terrorism
Civil disturbance operations, defence of patrimonial sites, etc.

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Training and monitoring of local police forces
Public safety and order, law enforcement
Presence patrol
Response to emergency calls
Info gathering
Investigation of criminal activities
Arrest or detention of suspected criminals
Combat of terrorism
Civil disturbance operations, defence of patrimonial sites, etc.

Telecommunications

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Procedures (papa/romeo/delta/kilo here is../Mike one to M2 etc.)
Telephone
Handy (mobile phone)
Intercom
Walkie talkie (portaphone)
Mobile phone (not portable)
E-mail
Fax

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Procedures (papa/romeo/delta/kilo here is../Mike one to M2 etc.)
Telephone
Handy (mobile phone)
Intercom
Walkie talkie (portaphone)
Mobile phone (not portable)
E-mail
Fax

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Procedures (papa/romeo/delta/kilo here is../Mike one to M2 etc.)
Telephone
Handy (mobile phone)
Intercom
Walkie talkie (portaphone)
Mobile phone (not portable)
E-mail
Fax

Logistics and supplies

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Road conditions (traffic piles, road blocks, ... etc.)
Import and export permissions
Contracts (Legal duties, conditions, exceptions, payment, guarantees, ..., etc.)
Storage, humidity and temperature control
Safety, insurances, guarding
Administration (finances, expiry dates, quality control systems, ... etc.)
Planning

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Road conditions (traffic piles, road blocks, ... etc.)
Import and export permissions
Contracts (Legal duties, conditions, exceptions, payment, guarantees, ..., etc.)
Storage, humidity and temperature control
Safety, insurances, guarding
Administration (finances, expiry dates, quality control systems, ... etc.)
Planning

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Road conditions (traffic piles, road blocks, ... etc.)
Import and export permissions
Contracts (Legal duties, conditions, exceptions, payment, guarantees, ..., etc.)
Storage, humidity and temperature control
Safety, insurances, guarding
Administration (finances, expiry dates, quality control systems, ... etc.)
Planning

Quarter making

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Site selection
Preparation of paperwork for import and transport of equipment
Logistics (transport, telephone, water, etc.)
Civil works (construction and repair of buildings, roads, etc.)
Military reconnaissance, elaboration of peacekeeping strategy
Setting up camp (shelters/caravans etc.)
Co-ordination with fellow peacekeeping forces

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Site selection
Preparation of paperwork for import and transport of equipment
Logistics (transport, telephone, water, etc.)
Civil works (construction and repair of buildings, roads, etc.)
Military reconnaissance, elaboration of peacekeeping strategy
Setting up camp (shelters/caravans etc.)
Co-ordination with fellow peacekeeping forces

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Site selection
Preparation of paperwork for import and transport of equipment
Logistics (transport, telephone, water, etc.)
Civil works (construction and repair of buildings, roads, etc.)
Military reconnaissance, elaboration of peacekeeping strategy
Setting up camp (shelters/caravans etc.)
Co-ordination with fellow peacekeeping forces

Technical service

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Maintenance and repair of:
* buildings, roads
* military equipment (weapons, tanks, planes etc.)
* support equipment (transport, tents, office equipment, communication, etc.)

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Maintenance and repair of:
* buildings, roads
* military equipment (weapons, tanks, planes etc.)
* support equipment (transport, tents, office equipment, communication, etc.)

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Maintenance and repair of:
* buildings, roads
* military equipment (weapons, tanks, planes etc.)
* support equipment (transport, tents, office equipment, communication, etc.)

Equipment of troops

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Dangerous equipment (radio-active elements, chemicals, explosives)
Damaged/to be replaced equipment
Lost/stolen equipment

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Dangerous equipment (radio-active elements, chemicals, explosives)
Damaged/to be replaced equipment
Lost/stolen equipment

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Dangerous equipment (radio-active elements, chemicals, explosives)
Damaged/to be replaced equipment
Lost/stolen equipment

Environmental damage

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Leakage (oil, chemicals etc.)
(Illegal) dumping
Pollution of water, soil and air; determination and corrective actions
Determination of sources of pollution
Instructions to prevent or minimise pollution
Treatment of water, soil and air

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Leakage (oil, chemicals etc.)
(Illegal) dumping
Pollution of water, soil and air; determination and corrective actions
Determination of sources of pollution
Instructions to prevent or minimise pollution
Treatment of water, soil and air

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Leakage (oil, chemicals etc.)
(Illegal) dumping
Pollution of water, soil and air; determination and corrective actions
Determination of sources of pollution
Instructions to prevent or minimise pollution
Treatment of water, soil and air

Safety, health and hygiene

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Headquarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Safety instructions, fire prevention, etc.
Safety signals and messages
Mine clearance, removal of unexploded ordnance, marking remaining mines, etc.)
Mine-awareness
Food safety, drinking water, poisoning
Treatment, removal of chemicals
Safety measures (bullet proof coat/window, precaution measures, etc.)
Escorting convoy
Analysing and reporting security situation
Prevention and combat of contagious diseases
Natural disaster relief
Prevention of traffic accidents

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Safety instructions, fire prevention, etc.
Safety signals and messages
Mine clearance, removal of unexploded ordnance, marking remaining mines, etc.)
Mine-awareness
Food safety, drinking water, poisoning
Treatment, removal of chemicals
Safety measures (bullet proof coat/window, precaution measures, etc.)
Escorting convoy
Analysing and reporting security situation
Prevention and combat of contagious diseases
Natural disaster relief
Prevention of traffic accidents

Safety, health and hygiene (continued)

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Safety instructions, fire prevention, etc.
Safety signals and messages
Mine clearance, removal of unexploded ordnance, marking remaining mines, etc.)
Mine-awareness
Food safety, drinking water, poisoning
Treatment, removal of chemicals
Safety measures (bullet proof coat/window, precaution measures, etc.)
Escorting convoy
Analysing and reporting security situation
Prevention and combat of contagious diseases
Natural disaster relief
Prevention of traffic accidents

Emergency situations

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Calling for help
Handling incidents (Shooting, illegal actions, ambush, snipers, etc.)
Bomb warning/explosion
Handling casualties
Handling fire break out
Civil uprisings/demonstrations

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Calling for help
Handling incidents (Shooting, illegal actions, ambush, snipers, etc.)
Bomb warning/explosion
Handling casualties
Handling fire break out
Civil uprisings/demonstrations

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Calling for help
Handling incidents (Shooting, illegal actions, ambush, snipers, etc.)
Bomb warning/explosion
Handling casualties
Handling fire break out
Civil uprisings/demonstrations

First aid

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Content and use of first aid kit
Use of medicines, self medication
Wounds, fractures, sprains
Drowning
Sunstroke
Shock
Food poisoning
Calling medical assistance

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Content and use of first aid kit
Use of medicines, self medication
Wounds, fractures, sprains
Drowning
Sunstroke
Shock
Food poisoning
Calling medical assistance

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Content and use of first aid kit
Use of medicines, self medication
Wounds, fractures, sprains
Drowning
Sunstroke
Shock
Food poisoning
Calling medical assistance

Weather forecast

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
International symbols (Beaufort, atmospheric pressure, °C, ... etc.)
Weather forecast
Interpretation of weather forecast

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
International symbols (Beaufort, atmospheric pressure, °C, ... etc.)
Weather forecast
Interpretation of weather forecast

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
International symbols (Beaufort, atmospheric pressure, °C, ... etc.)
Weather forecast
Interpretation of weather forecast

Reporting

In the activities listed tick who you communicate with.

	Colleagues	Head-quarters	Police	Para-militaries	Civil authorities	Civilians
Aim of the message
Clearness of message:
* describing circumstances
* using terms to report technical facts
* reflection content of message
Clear conclusion or request

Which skills do you use in each of these activities?

	Reading	What do you read?	Writing	What do you write?	Speaking	Listening
Aim of the message
Clearness of message:
* describing circumstances
* using terms to report technical facts
* reflection content of message
Clear conclusion or request

Generally, how often do you use English in each of these activities?

	Every Day	A few times a week	Once a week	A few times a month	Once a month
Aim of the message
Clearness of message:
* describing circumstances
* using terms to report technical facts
* reflection content of message
Clear conclusion or request					